THE ETHER VIBRATES

The KRABRep Present Four Dramas!

January is Radio Drama Month at KRAB. This month marks the unveiling of two drama productions at work for the last six months: Working Part One - a desperation plea and Working Part Two - achieving satisfaction. Both are adaptations from the book by Studs Terkel. They will be aired on consecutive nights - Part One at 9pm on Jan. 30 and Part Two at 9:30 pm of Jan. 31.

Also, the KRABRep, our resident drama group will present two adaptations conceived by its members. The first will be Stonecrop. This piece is concerned with townspeople's reflections of smalltown life. It will be presented as a series of Morning Readings on Jan 8-11 at 10:00am. The producer is Toby Harris. The second will be Mimosa, a science-fiction play in the subtle, intelligent and sophisticated vein. It will be aired on Jan. 26 at 8pm, with Andrew Hummel as producer.

About the two Working shows: These two shows have been in their formation process for six months. The convention of the book is real-life interviews with people about their jobs and their feelings about their work. Coming from a theatrical background rather than a radio one and wanting to escape the traditional radio drama as well as the documentary style that the book lends itself to, I decided to approach the shows simply as a product of my generation, that is, "the-listening-to-records generation. Both shows are conceived through this idea. Music acts as more of a subconscious identity in the lives and locale of the characters than just pure background sounds. Each character selection is labeled like a cut off an album. This motif works differently in the two shows. Part One deals with dissatisfaction, hopelessness, boredom and rebellion. These elements call for a more dramatic pacing and overall rendering than Part Two. This show is more laid back and thoughtful for its elements are derived from a more or less satisfied perspective. Witness: (Part One) Hippy Coppy Boy, "I will say...This is bogus, this is bullshit, a man, a woman shouldn't have to spend time doing this... and just walk out." (Part Two) A Hooker, "All I did was act out the reality of American womanhood." The characters' names are left out to give the content more of a national/universal feeling. Be Listening.

THIS MONTH WE SEND THE FINAL REMINDER OUT TO THOSE WHO HAVE YET TO MAKE GOOD THEIR PLEDGE FROM THE FALL MARATHON: CALLING ALL CARS!

KRAB's New Antenna Arrives Soon!

After a long wait it appears that our new antenna (ordered last year with our new transmitter) may be arriving soon. We anticipate being able to install it sometime in January. It will mean we will be able to boost our operating power from 7 kilowatts to 17 kilowatts. For the listeners that means many people who have had trouble receiving KRAB will be able to receive it perfectly. In addition, many new areas will be able to receive KRAB for the first time.

However, it also means that we anticipate having to go off the air for approximately one day for installation (so that our engineer won't be fried with microwaves.) So if you tune in and don't hear KRAB one morning, don't worry - we haven't gone away and we'll be right back! As soon as we know the exact date we will begin announcing it on the air, so be listening.

ENGINEERING STAFF PUTTING UP THE NEW ANTENNA

We at KRAB would like to extend our gratitude to Rice Business Machines for lending the station a desperately-needed typewriter.

Pacific Northwest individuals and businesses have played an important role in KRAB's broadcasting history by providing financial support for the station's efforts to provide the community with quality alternative radio programming. We are proud to add the name of Safeco Insurance Company to the growing number of Pacific Northwest businesses supporting public access radio. Safeco Insurance Company - welcome to the wonderful world of KRAB and thank you for your generous donation.

Square Dance Benefit a Success

A special thanks to Phil Andrus and Libby Sinclair who put together a highly successful square dance benefit for KRAB on Bainbridge Island last month. Thanks also to the two bands who played - Brandywine and Flash in the Pan Stringband. They played to a capacity crowd and it is reported that a good time was had by all. And as a result the KRAB coffers are now approximately $350 better off.

1 Monday

6:00 EARLY MUSIC
Stu Witmer plays mostly old European music. The BBC gives you the news of the world at 7:00.

10:00 MORNING READING
Is it true that food hit by atomic rays is poisoned? That one bomb can wipe out an entire city? That atomic rays kill everything they touch? This week Kay Hutchins reads from How to Survive an Atomic Bomb, a 1950 handbook complete with appropriate illustrations, by Richard Gerstell, consultant to the US Civil Defense Office.

A good scrubbing after an atom-bomb blast will remove radioactive particles clinging to the skin.

10:30 KRABJAZZ
Stacey's Mood.

7:30 CAPTAIN BALTIC'S BOP STOP
Parkermania, Part VIII: All of the famous sessions featuring the 1950 reunion of Bird with Dizzy Gillespie and Thelonius Monk. Plus the "Swedish Schnapps" issue, with two sessions featuring Miles Davis and Red Rodney. Several currently unavailable alternate takes from these sessions will be heard. Two of Bird's earliest studio sessions for Norman Granz, "Dearly Beloved" and "Jam Blues", in excerpted form will be played, and to wrap it all up, Bird with Machito's 1950 afro-cuban big band!

9:00 HOW HOWARD HUGHES WAS JUST LIKE JESUS
We don't know where this recording came from... it just showed up on our doorstep one morning. Suffice to say it's one of the most bizarre things we've heard since the guy who thought he could contact the spirit world by yelling into an ancient tape recorder...or the character who was convinced the CIA had astral agents out to kidnap all the dogs in the world...or the fellow who had a radio receiver implanted in his brain by spys from outerspace...or...

10:00 MARK O'CONNOR AND AL GALANTE IN CONCERT
An interesting blend of Texas fiddle and jazz guitar styles with National Fiddle Champion Mark O'Connor and Al Galante, who teaches guitar at Shoreline Community College. Tape courtesy of Dennis Flannigan.

9:30 BLUE NOTES FOR MONGEZI

Mongezi Feza was born in Queenstown, South Africa, in 1945. In 1962 he joined the Blue Notes, a South African jazz quintet led by Chris McGregor. The band attended the Antibes Festival of 1964 and then moved to Europe in 1965. Playing lead trumpet in the Brotherhood of Death and other groups, including his own, and writing music for many South African theatre productions, Mongezi Feza became an important voice in the development of the new music movement in both Africa and Europe. He continued playing as a member of the Blue Notes until his untimely death at the age of thirty on Dec. 14, 1975. Nine days later, the four remaining members of the Blue Notes walked into a rehearsal room in London and created a spontaneous tribute to their friend. The resulting 85 minutes of music, ranging from free jazz to African funk were edited from that session.

LAUGHING-GAS FANCIES.

BY R. K. MUNKITTRICK.

WITH this tooth I am about
Crazy all the day;
I must go and have it out,
Or I can not play.

I am not afraid a bit;
All will pleasant pass.
Soon in that red chair I'll sit
Taking laughing-gas.

Through a garden bright and fair
I shall gayly walk,
And among the flowers there
To the birdies talk;

See the pie-plant full of pies;
In them stick my thumbs;
Hear the drooping branch that sighs,
Full of sugar-plums.

I shall down this gardenway
Happy footsteps wend;
And when through the gate I stray,
At the other end,

I shall, in a dreamy way,
Learn the pleasant truth
When I hear the dentist say,
"Johnny, where's your tooth?"
